

TREK TO TRANSFORM YOUNG LIVES

Join the Graeme Dingle Foundation's Trek to strengthen Kiwi kids who need it most and transform their Lives. Your support could change a child's life for the better. Are you ready to make a difference?

THE DIFFERENCE YOU'LL MAKE

We live in one of the world's most beautiful places, but unfortunately not all childhoods are created equal and some of our children are suffering.

The key to turning this around is to get in early. It's more effective to build a fence at the top of the cliff than to continually send ambulances to the bottom.

If you have what is mentally and emotionally needed to conquer life's challenges, you can conquer obstacles in any size, shape or form: first day of school, home environments, peer pressure, self-doubt, and rejection.

Our programmes work to build life skills and values in our kids and enabling them to have the self-belief to overcome the issues that young people face in today's world. We want all our young people to believe what they have inside is greater than any obstacle.

Join the Graeme Dingle Foundation trek to strengthen Kiwi kids who need it most. Your support will change a child's life for the better.

TRIP ITINERARY

B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner

✈ Day 1, Wednesday 17 April 2019: Arrive Hanoi

The adventure-of-a-lifetime begins today as we board our international flight to Hanoi, Vietnam. On arrival, we are greeted by a local guide and transferred to our hotel. Our first evening is free at leisure to rest and relax after a long flight.

🚲 Day 2, Thursday 18 April 2019: Full day Hanoi tour

Meals: B L D

Today we will enjoy a tour of the city of Hanoi. We begin with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. Here, you will hear about the man who led Vietnam's campaign for independence from French colonial rule. Then we will visit the imperial citadel, the apex of regional political power for more than a millennium where research and excavation is still underway. After a Vietnamese lunch, head to another 11th century relic, the Temple of Literature, which was built as an homage to the Chinese scholar Confucius. You will then see the iconic Long Bien Bridge. Constructed across Red River between 1899 and 1902, when Vietnam was still ruled by the French, it is now buzzing with motorbikes and an occasional passenger train chugging into nearby Long Bien Station.

The tour continues with a 30-minute cycling tour through Hanoi's bustling Old Quarter, a place where Hanoians buy everything from noodles to light fixtures to Buddha statues. The quarter's 36 streets were named for the products that were sold from their shops. Today, vendors on Tin and Bamboo Streets still sell the same wares. After exploring the old quarter's shady alleyways, sip a strong Vietnamese coffee in a café overlooking Hoan Kiem Lake - an important symbol in Vietnamese culture. Snap a photograph of the downtown skyline before returning to your hotel in the late afternoon.

🚲 Day 3, Friday 19 April 2019: Sapa

Meals: B L D

Today the morning is free to spend at leisure before transferring in a private vehicle to Sapa. As we drive, take time to watch the Vietnamese countryside come to life through your window. On arrival, we check in to our hotel before sitting down to a group dinner together. The night is then free to rest or spend time exploring our new town.

Day 4, Saturday 20 April 2019: Sapa

Meals: B L D

We will arrive in Lao Cai in the early morning, traveling by road about an hour to reach the township of Sapa. After breakfast and a quick freshen up, we begin our tour of Sapa. The first stop is the Sapa Museum where you will see a large display of traditional costumes, handicrafts and tools used by the ethnic minority groups that live within the area. You will also learn about the history of Sapa, its military past and the influence of the French. Next, take a short walk to the day market bustling with vendors selling fruit and vegetables, household goods and clothing.

After visiting the market you will then travel a short distance by car to the village of Cat Cat, to start your two-hour trek. Your adventure begins, as your guide takes you off the main path and along a track that clings to the mountainside. Along the way you will see local H'mong villagers going about their daily life, planting rice and tending to their animals. At the half-way point, stop for a snack break at the river's edge and dip your toes in the refreshing cool water. Then continue on to Tien Sa waterfall for great photo opportunities.

Day 5, Sunday 21 April 2019: Y Linh Ho – Tavan

Meals: B L D

Today we are met at your hotel in Sapa by the local guide and driver and start our trek through the market, leaving the busy town behind. We will follow a road going downhill to Cat Cat Village. Stopping by a waterfall and a hydroelectric station for a while before continuing your trek on a dirt trail through rice paddy terraces. Enjoy the spectacular scenery while walking along a narrow river. When we arrive in the Y Linh Ho Village of Black Hmong minority, we can rest while we are served lunch nearby the river. After lunch, we head Muong Hoa valley. You will pass through the Lao Chai Village of Black Hmong minority and then Tavan Village of Giay minority by following a very popular trekking route. We will spend the night in the local house of Giay minority.

Trekking time:
5 hours (approx.)

Day 6, Monday 22 April 2019: Tavan – Seomity

Meals: B L D

After breakfast, we begin today's trek uphill. Stopping for the occasional rest, you will be able to enjoy the view of the beautiful valley. The trek will ease in the afternoon. But the scenery becomes even more beautiful. We'll pass Seomity village before arriving at our homestay, which is located near the river.

Trekking time: 4.5
hours (approx.)

Day 7, Tuesday 23 April 2019: Seomity — Den Thang — Ta Trung Ho

Meals: B L D

The trek today takes you through beautiful rice paddies and over old suspension bridges. We will trek on small trails snaking through rainforest. We will arrive in Den Thang village of Black Hmong by noon. Here you stop for lunch either nearby a river or in a local school according to the weather. After lunch, the trek becomes a bit more challenging on the undulating footpath. You will reach Ta Trung Ho village, home of the Red Dao minority, where you spend the night in a local house. Both the valley and the village have only just begun receiving foreign visitors. You will spend the night in the wonderful hospitable atmosphere of the Red Dao.

Trekking time: 4.5 hours (approx.)

Day 8, Wednesday 24 April 2019: Ta Trung Ho – Nam Toong – Ban Ho – Sapa

Meals: B L D

We are now at the fringe of the rainforest by the Hoang Lien Son mountain range. Fansipan, the highest peak in Indochina at 3,143m, is located in this mountain range. You will start the trek today by ascending to Nam Toong village of the Red Dao minority. Here your lunch will be prepared in a local school. In the afternoon, before descending to Ban Ho, you can make a stop by a waterfall to refresh. We will then be transferred by vehicle back to Sapa. Relax and refresh yourself at the hotel and transfer to Lao Cai train station for the night train back to Hanoi.

Transfer time: 1 hour (approx.)

Trekking time: 4 hours (approx.)

Day 9, Thursday 25 April 2019: Hanoi – Halong Bay

Meals: B L D

On arrival in Hanoi, transfer to your hotel for refreshment and breakfast before your relaxing trip to Halong Bay. Leave the noise of the city behind as you travel about four hours to Halong Bay. Hop aboard a small tender boat to arrive at L'Azalee, a beautifully restored traditional wooden vessel and explore the jade green waters of Halong Bay over lunch. This afternoon the tender will take you to a secluded part of the bay where the water is perfect for swimming and kayaking around the limestone karsts. You'll return back to L'Azalee just in time to watch the sunset from the top deck before enjoying the bay's freshest seafood dinner.

Day 10, Friday 26 April 2019: Halong Bay – Hanoi

Meals: B L D

Wake up refreshed from a good nights sleep as the boat motors towards Surprise Cave, the biggest in Halong Bay. Board the tender for a short trip to the cave and be amazed - the entry to the cave is deceptively narrow but once through, the cave opens up to a large chamber with impressive limestone formations. Surprise! Then it's back to the boat to cruise to Halong Port arriving around noon, where you have the rest of the evening to relax and enjoy Hanoi's slower pace.

Day 11, Saturday 27 April 2019: Depart Hanoi

Meals: B L D
