

Board Position - Trustee

About Us

The Graeme Dingle Foundation is a leader in youth development, focused on empowering young people to thrive. Through a network of community partners, the Foundation delivers evidence-based youth development programmes, leadership and support to over 27,000 young New Zealanders every year.

As one of these community partners, The Graeme Dingle Foundation Wellington delivers programmes to young people aged 5-18 years, and young adults within the Greater Wellington Region.

Opportunity

As a Volunteer Trustee, you will play a crucial role in guiding our organisation and ensuring we continue to provide exceptional support to the youth in our community. Your governance expertise and passion for youth development will help shape our strategies and amplify our reach.

Who We're Looking For:

- Individuals with experience in governance, business management or community development.
- Passionate about empowering young people and making a positive difference.
- Strong leadership, communication, and collaborative skills.
- Strong local networks and the ability to connect with community and build support.
- Committed to dedicating time and expertise to support our purpose.
- Specific skills or knowledge in marketing, fundraising, risk management or youth development would be advantageous.

Responsibilities

- Attend and actively participate in board meetings.
- Provide strategic direction and oversight for our programme delivery and growth.
- Ensure effective governance and financial sustainability.
- Advocate for our mission and represent the Foundation in the community.
- Collaborate with fellow trustees and staff to enhance our impact.

Why Join Us:

- Make a tangible impact on the lives of young people in the Greater Wellington Region.
- Develop your governance skills and contribute to a respected organisation.
- Be part of an organisation that values innovation, evidence-based practice, and community support.

If you are ready to use your skills and experience to inspire and empower the next generation, we would love to hear from you. Join us at The Graeme Dingle Foundation Wellington and help us continue to make a lasting difference.
