

Career Navigator 2024

We collected...

106

surveys to see how the programme impacted Career Self-Efficacy

91% of students said the programme helped them to build their self-confidence.

92% of students learnt skills to prepare a good resume or CV.

92%

of students found information about further education and training courses.

92% of students found another point of view on their career choices helpful.

88% of students said they worked out what job would be best for them and what to look for in a job.

Student voices from across...

Bay of Plenty, Rotorua, Hawke's Bay, Southland, Waikato and Wellington

95% of students said they learnt the skills they needed for a workplace.

89% of students improved their communication skills and said they could now perform well in a job interview.